PRESS RELEASE

Burglary of Habitation/Endangering a Child/Assault Family Violence

July 27, 2015

On July 27, 2015 around 12:48 a.m., Officers responded to a disturbance on the 1500 Block of Alamo Street. Officers met with the reporting party who advised that her Ex-Daughter in law showed up to her house intoxicated and forced her way into the house. A 15 year old family member who answered the door attempted to shut the door but was pushed aside during the entry. She began trying to forcibly take her 3 year old child. The reporting party refused to let the child go due to the intoxicated condition and for the safety of the child. She continued to pull with force to remove the child from the reporting parties' arms and the child began to cry. The reporting party asked that she return in the morning when she was sober and she continued to scream and argue. The child was taken to another room while the police were notified. The Female, Lee Ann Martinez, was arrested for Burglary of Habitation, Endangering a Child and Assault Family Violence. As per protocol, CPS was notified about the incident. Judge David Garza arraigned Ms. Martinez and the bond amounts are as follows.

Burglary of Habitation	$20,000
Endangering a Child	$5,000
Assault Class A Family Violence	$4,000

All people are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of Law
