PRESS RELEASE

Evading Arrest or Detention, Reckless Driving, Failure to Appear

Wednesday March 9, 2016

On Monday March 7th, 2016 at 11:42am, police officers were dispatched to the HEB located on Business 77 in reference to a possible theft. The caller gave a description of white in color Crown Victoria with a male driver. A police officer located the vehicle and attempted to conduct a traffic stop. The driver of the Crown Victoria refused to stop and continued at a high rate of speed through several streets in a local neighborhood. He continued to evade police and headed towards N. Sam Houston and Business 77. Police Officers followed until he lost control of the vehicle at the intersection of Line 17 Road and N. McCullough as he attempted to make a left turn on a gravel road. The male driver fled on foot and was shortly apprehended by police and arrested. He was identified as 32 year old Raymond Lopez Rodriguez. A criminal check on Rodriguez showed he had active warrants from 2012 and 2014 for evading arrest or detention from the San Benito Municipal Court and Cameron County Justice of the Peace Precinct 3 Place 2 and two failures to appear warrants from Cameron County Sheriff's Office. He was arraigned by Judge Benjamin Yudesis and bond was set totaling $95,000. A No Bond was placed on the County Warrants. He was transported to Cameron County Detention Center.
