PRESS RELEASE

Burglary of Habitation, Aggravated Assault, Evading Arrest on Foot/Burglary of Habitation, Credit Card Abuse X 2, Evading Arrest

On June 23, 2014 around 01:56pm Detectives with the San Benito Police Special Operations Division conducted surveillance on a business on the 1800 Block of South Sam Houston. The Detectives had been searching for two suspects who had been involved in a Burglary of Habitation, Credit Card Abuse and an Aggravated Assault. The Detectives received information that the suspects would attempt to retrieve a pay check from their last place of employment in that area. The suspects arrived in a vehicle and they were approached by the Detectives. The male suspect attempted to take hostage of the female suspect in an attempt to get away but it failed. The two suspects ran in different directions and were quickly apprehended. They are Elidio Jesse Rodriguez and Monica Rose Johnson of San Benito. Judge Ben Yeudis arraigned the two. Mr. Rodriguez has a No Bond on the Aggravated Assault. His total bonds were set at $75,000 bonds. Mrs. Johnsons total bonds were set at $125,000. The two were remanded to the Cameron County Jail.
