PRESS RELEASE

Assault Family Violence (Impeding Breath)

Monday July 7, 2014

On Sunday July 6, 2014 at 02:32am Officers were called to the 600 block of N. Crockett St. in reference to a female asking for help and a child crying in the background. When officers arrived they made contact with a 37 year old female who stated her boyfriend who she identified as 24 year old David Ignacio Garza had assaulted her several times. She had noticeable swelling to her face and a laceration on her lip. She advised Garza had pushed her into the wall and placed her in a headlock causing her to have difficulty breathing. Garza fled the area before officers arrived but was later located in a shed behind the residence. He was placed under arrest for Assault Family Violence Impeding Breath a 3rd degree felony and transported to the police station. An Emergency Protective Order was issued and Garza's bond was set at $40,000 dollars. He was transported to Cameron County Jail.
