PRESS RELEASE

Aggravated Sexual Assault of a Child, Burglary of a Habitation Commits Sex Offense/Felony

Friday September 19, 2014

On Thursday August 28, 2014 an outcry from a teenage female was made to her older sibling who then reported the incident to San Benito Police. The teenage victim stated a male who she identified as 38 year old Felix Cosino-Correa unlawfully made entry into their residence located on Nave St. and gained entry to the victim's bedroom. The victim was woken as she felt someone touching her between her legs and her private area. She got the attention of her sister by pinching her several times till she awoke. Her sister witnessed the sexual assault and pretended to be asleep fearing an assault on her. After several minutes Cosino left the residence in a light blue Jeep that was later found at his residence located at the 100 block of Cornejo Drive. Cosino had been doing construction work for the residence for about a month and was known by the family. Police Detectives gathered statements and evidence to apply for a warrant of arrest. Police obtained two felony warrants for Cosino for aggravated sexual assault of a child and burglary of a habitation commits sex offense/ felony. Cosino was arrested on Thursday September 18, 2014 at 09:05pm at his residence without incident. He was arraigned by Judge Benjamin Yudesis and bond was set at $100,000 dollars. Immigration and Customs Enforcement placed a detainer on Cosino and he was transported to Cameron County Detention Center in Olmito.
