

FOREWORD

The City of San Benito was first incorporated on July 30, 1920. The City's governmental affairs were conducted under a comparatively simple form of government consisting of a Mayor and two Commissioners.

By November of 1948, the City had grown to warrant a change to a Home Rule Charter. The City Charter was amended to include a Mayor, four Commissioners, and a City Manager to be appointed by the City Commission.

In December 1969, minor amendments were thereafter made to the Home Rule Charter.

In 1992 San Benito was experiencing growing pains. The Mayor and City Commission agreed that the City's Charter warranted a thorough examination and evaluation. Accordingly, a Charter Advisory Committee was created to conduct a study and survey extending over a period of several months. A copy of the existing City Charter was widely distributed to San Benito citizens with requests for recommendations; and meetings were held with various civic groups to receive ideas and recommendations. The Charter Advisory Committee completed its work by providing a report recommending numerous changes which were then approved by the City Commission.

A Charter Amendment Election was held on May 6, 1995, at which sixty proposed amendments were voted upon. All amendments were adopted.

In 2007 minor amendments were thereafter made to the Home Rule Charter. The Mayor and City Commission agreed that the City's Charter warranted a change as to the terms members of the commission were serving and that a review of the recall petition needed reform.

A Charter Amendment Election was held on May 12, 2007 at which time two proposed amendments were voted upon both amendments were adopted.

In 2012 minor amendments were thereafter made to the Home Rule Charter. The Mayor and City Commission agreed that the City's Charter warranted a change as to the eligibility requirements for paying their taxes, eligibility for running for office, express powers of the Mayor to appoint to the Advisory Boards with the consent of the City Commission, appointment of the Mayor Pro Tem annually, vacancy in the office of the Mayor, grounds for forfeiture, special election to fill vacancy, public hearing be held for a Commissioner member charged with conduct constituting grounds for forfeiture of office, passage of ordinances, publication of captions of ordinances, members of the commission be allowed to nominate members to the advisory boards, petition filed with the City Secretary on the removal of an elective officer, and that a review of the recall petition needed reform.

A Charter Amendment Election was held on May 12, 2012 at which time two¹⁷ (seventeen) proposed amendments were voted upon 16 amendments were adopted and one failed.

The Charter is a part of the foundation on which our City government operates, and as such, its importance to our community can not be overemphasized. The printing of this revised charter, and in turn, making it available to all interested parties, is truly in accord with our progressive City government and democratic way of life.

Any authorization of payment or incurring of obligation in violation of the provision of this Charter shall be void and any payment so made illegal. A violation of this provision shall be cause for removal of any officer who knowingly authorized or made such payment or incurred such obligation. Such officer may also be liable to the City for any amount so paid. Except where prohibited by law, however, nothing in this Charter shall be constructed to prevent the making or authorizing of payments or making of contracts for capital improvements to be financed wholly or partly by the issuance of bonds or to prevent the making of any contract or lease providing for payments beyond the end of the fiscal year, but only if such action is made or approved by Ordinance.
