On Wednesday November 19, 2014 at 08:27pm Police Officers were called to the 500 block of S. McCullough in reference to a small child wondering in the middle of the road. When Officers arrived they made contact with the female caller who was holding a 3 year old girl. The caller stated she was driving down the road and noticed the small child in the road with no shoes and called police. After an hour of searching for the child's parents, Police were approached by an elderly female who stated she was the Grandmother of the child.
