PRESS RELEASE

CRIMINAL TRESPASS, US MARSHAL WARRANT

THURSDAY JUNE 20, 2013

On Wednesday June 19, 2013 at 01:34am, Officers were called to the 100 block of Maria St. in reference to a disturbance. Officers were told that a female had made entry into a home through the bedroom window in search for her ex boyfriend. The witness identified the female as 31 year old Maria Myrna Zamora. The witness stated that Zamora and her ex boyfriend were arguing and Zamora was told to leave because she was intoxicated. The Officer left the area in search of Zamora and located a female walking in the street. The Officer approached the female who stated she was looking for her sister who was highly intoxicated. The Officer went to Zamora's residence on Ernestina St. and noticed the back door was partially open and asked the sister to check inside for Zamora. They located Zamora asleep on her bed with a laceration on her chin. She was placed under arrest for Criminal Trespass and transported to the city jail. Zamora was taken to Harlingen Medical for medical attention for the laceration on her chin. At the Hospital she began to be belligerent and combative with staff and had to be handcuffed to the hospital bed. The Officer was later notified by dispatch that Zamora was wanted out of the US Marshal's Office for Parole Violation. US Marshal's placed a detainer on Zamora for Parole Violation out of New Mexico. She was arraigned by Justice of the Peace Judge David Garza and bond was set at $3,000 dollars.
