PRESS RELEASE

HARASSMENT

MONDAY June 10, 2013

On June 6, 2013 at 10:12am, a Police Detective arrested 17 year old Alexandria Gonzalez on an arrest warrant for two counts of Harassment. On May 23, 2013, two female victims filed a police report with the San Benito Police Department for harassment. According to reports, the phone harassment has been ongoing since May 19, 2013. Constant calls and text messages from restricted phone numbers and several other numbers have harassed the two victims. The victims stated that in one night Gonzales has called over 170 times. They have received text messages about family members that have been seriously injured, death threats, and accusations of cheating relationships. The phone number that has been harassing the two victims was called and a message on their voicemail was left asking for her to return the call. Gonzalez later called the Detective and admitted that she had been the one calling the two females. Judge Benjamin Yudesis arraigned her and set bond at $5,000 dollars.
