PRESS RELEASE

EVADING OR RESISTING ARREST

MONDAY DECEMBER 3RD, 2012

On Saturday December 1st, 2012, at 4:15 pm. San Benito Police Officers responded to a residence located on the 100 Block of Line 17 Road in reference to a domestic disturbance between mother and son. When the Police Officers arrived they made contact with a 51 year old female who stated that her son was out of control, and was breaking household items. When the Police Officers attempted to make contact with the subject who was later identified as 26 year Manuel Gonzalez out of San Benito, the subject ran out of the house and began circling the house until an Officer managed to detain him. Manuel Gonzalez then resisted arrest, and was placed under arrest for resisting arrest and assault class C. Manuel Gonzalez was then transported to City Jail where he was arraigned by Municipal Judge David Garza who set bond at $3,000 Dollars. Suspect was later taken to the Cameron County Jail.

On Saturday December 1st, 2012, at 9:35 pm. San Benito Police Officers responded to the intersection of Corral and Robertson in reference to a subject harassing teenagers by that intersection. When the Officers arrived a male subject matching the description ran from the scene, and an Officer gave chase detaining the subject who was later identified as 29 year old Diego Davila by Hidalgo Street. Diego Davila resisted arrest, but was eventually placed under arrest for evading arrest or detention on foot, and resisting arrest. Diego Davila was then taken to City Jail where upon searching the subject for contraband or weapons a clear plastic bag that contained a rock like substance possibly crack cocaine was found in his person. Suspect was charged with Evading, Resisting arrest and possession of a controlled substance PG-1(crack cocaine). Diego Davila was arraigned by Municipal Judge David Garza who set bonds on all charges totaling $12,000. Suspect was taken to the Cameron County Jail.

On Sunday November 2nd, 2012, at 01:51 am. A San Benito Police Officer observed a female walking by the 100 Block of Sam Houston who displayed unsteady balance. The Officer attempted to make contact with the adult female who ignored the Officer, and appeared to be highly intoxicated with alcohol. When the Officer attempted to detain the female for her safety she pulled away, and began resisting arrest. Female was later identified as 46 year old Maria Castillo out of San Benito. Maria Castillo continued to resisting, and refused to get inside the patrol unit. Female eventually complied and was charged with Resisting arrest and Public Intoxication. Maria Castillo was arraigned by Judge David Garza who set bond at $4,000.
