PRESS RELEASE

AGGRAVATED ROBBERY

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 13, 2012

On Friday November 9, 2012, at 03:58 am, San Benito Police responded to a robbery that had just occurred at the Valero Gas Station located on the corner of Sam Houston Boulevard and Frontage Road. When the Police Officer arrived they made contact with a 20 year old male who identified himself as the store attendant, and who advised the Officer that several subjects (two males and a female) had walked inside the store and taken two 16. Oz cans of Beer, and left the store without paying. The clerk continued by saying that he then went outside the store and began writing down the license plate of the red Ford F-150 Pickup. According to the clerk two male subjects later identified as 19 year old Hector Gamez and 19 year old Norberto Perez both from San Benito descended from the pickup truck, and confronted the clerk. During the assault according to the clerk one of the subjects used a squeegee to assault him while the other subject struck him several times on his face. After the assault the subjects fled the scene traveling south on Sam Houston Boulevard. Victim refused medical attention. During the course of the weekend Hector Gamez and 18 year old Yazmin Perez out of San Benito were arrested in connection with the aggravated robbery, and arraigned by Municipal Judge David Garza who set bonds at $25,000 each. On 11-12-2012 at 09:27 am, Norberto Perez turned himself in at the San Benito Police station, and was arraigned on aggravated robbery charges by Municipal Judge David Garza who set bond at $25,000.
