PRESS RELEASE

THEFT

THURSDAY AUGUST 29, 2013

On Wednesday August 28, 2013 at 01:20pm two females identified as 64 year old Juana Maria Martinez-Chaires and 36 year old Christina Hernandez-Martinez turned themselves in to the San Benito Police Department for a theft arrest warrant. On August 20, 2013 a female arriving at her residence located at 1000 E. Stenger dropped her wallet in the parking lot as she exited her vehicle. Video surveillance showed the female victim drop her wallet as she exited her vehicle and sometime later shows a red in color pickup pull up to the wallet and the elderly female passenger picks up the wallet and opens it. The passenger hands the wallet to the driver of the vehicle and leave to another building in the apartment complex. The two females were identified and contact was made by the manager who retrieved the wallet. The wallet was given back to the owner who advised her rent money of $600 dollars was missing. An arrest warrant was obtained by the Officer for Theft a Class A Misdemeanor. They were arraigned by Justice of the Peace Judge David Garza and both females were given a $1,000 dollar Personal Recognizance Bond.
