

POST EVENT REPORT FORM HOTEL OCCUPANCY TAX FUNDING

By law of the State of Texas, the City of San Benito, Texas, collects a Hotel Occupancy Tax (HOT) from hotels, motels, and bed & breakfast inns. The revenue from the HOT may be used only to directly promote tourism and the convention and hotel industry. Chapter 351 of the Tax Code states that the use of HOT funds is limited to:

- i) Convention Centers and Visitor Information Centers: The acquisition of sites for and the construction, improvement, enlarging, equipping, repairing operation and maintenance of convention center facilities or visitor information centers, or both;
- ii) Registration of Convention Delegates: The furnishing of facilities, personnel, and materials for the registration of convention delegates or registrants;
- iii) Advertising, Solicitation and Promotions that Directly Promote Tourism and the Hotel and Convention Industry: Advertising and conducting solicitations and promotional programs to attract tourists and convention delegates or registrants to the municipality or its vicinity;
- iv) Promotions of the Arts that Directly Promote Tourism and the Hotel and Convention Industry: The encouragement, promotion, improvement, and application of the arts, including instrumental and vocal music, dance, drama, folk art, creative writing, architecture, design and allied fields, painting, sculpture photography, graphic and craft arts, motion picture, radio, television, tape and sound recording, and other arts related to the presentation, performance, execution, and exhibition of these major art forms, and
- v) Historical Restoration and Preservation Activities that Directly Promote Tourism and the Hotel and Convention Industry: Historical restoration and preservation projects or activities or advertising and conducting solicitation and promotional programs to encourage tourists and convention delegates to visit preserved historic sites or museums;
- vi) Sporting Event Expenses that Substantially Increase Economic Activity at Hotels: Expenses, including promotional expenses, directly related to a sporting event in which the majority of participants are tourists who substantially increase economic activity at hotels and motels within the city or its vicinity.

The City of San Benito accepts applications from groups and businesses meeting the above criteria who wish to receive HOT funds. All entities that are approved for such funds must submit a Post Event Report Form no later than 60 days of each funded event.

The report will be reviewed by the City of San Benito to determine how well the entity met its goals and will be used in consideration of future hotel occupancy tax funding requests. Priority will be given to those events that demonstrate an ability to generate overnight visitors to the City of San Benito.
